Daily Bus Run Starts April 16

TSAILE, ARIZ. — Starting April 16, Diné College will start a new bus route, from Shiprock, N.M., to Tsaile, officials said.

"We decided to start a pilot busing program for the rest of the semester," Bo Lewis, vice president of finance at Diné College, said.

"Based on the results from the pilot program, we'll make a decision on whether to make it a permanent program or not — or even to charge a fee," Lewis said. "We will have exempt employees be the drivers and it will be open to students as well as employees," Lewis said. "The valid employee ID's will be required to use the busing program."

Prior to the start of making the bus program official, human resources director Merle Dayzie volunteered to drive the 15-seater silver Chevrolet College Passenger van from Shiprock to Tsaile — which is typically around 60 miles and close to an hour to arrive. The drive covers parts of U.S. 491 leaving Shiprock and passes along Route 13 as it goes through Red Valley and Cove, Ariz.

Dayzie said a couple of things he'll monitor are ridership and popular pick up points, saying an advantage for students is getting to Tsaile to take classes that aren't sometimes offered at the Shiprock campus of Diné College.

According to a recent Diné College transportation survey, roughly 63 percent of students spend 30-minutes or more commuting to the Tsaile campus.

- The van Departs from Shiprock's North Campus for Tsaile at 7:45 a.m., arriving approximately at 9:15 a.m. at the Tsaile Campus (NHC).
- The van departs from Tsaile Campus (NHC) at 3:45 p.m., arriving approximately at 5:15 p.m. at the Shiprock North Campus.
