APPLICATION PROCEDURES AND ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

It is the responsibility of the student to complete a housing application and attach all required paperwork. The Residence Life Office will accept only completed applications.

Married/Single parents applying for family housing must complete criminal background checks for their spouses. Parents must provide enrollment verification from the child's school. Only dependent children still in school will be eligible to live in family housing units with their parents/guardian. No extended family members are allowed to reside in the housing units. Students must be 18 years of age or older to apply for housing.

Priority for student family housing are as follows:

1. Distance from the college;
2. Full-time students;
3. Returning students in good academic standing with a 2.00 GPA and no infractions from previous semester;
4. Transfer Students;
5. New incoming students.

Students with families living in family housing units will be allowed to live in family housing for a maximum of three years for students pursuing an Associate's degree and additional three years for student pursuing a Bachelor's degree. Students must maintain satisfactory academic progress, current on their rent and in good social standing to remain eligible.

During the academic year, students must remain in good standing as defined in the current Dine College catalog. Students must meet these requirements each semester to remain eligible for housing. Students falling below the satisfactory academic progress requirement will be placed on Residence Life probation for the following semester. A second semester of non-satisfactory progress will result in ineligibility to reapply for Student Family Housing or eviction.

TERMINATION OF STUDENT FAMILY HOUSING

The following will result in termination and eviction from Student Family Housing.

1. Any violation for which eviction is sanctioned. Engagement by the student, any member of the student's Dependent(s) or visitor(s), in a criminal activity that threatens the health & safety of the residents.
2. Failure to pay the costs associated with on-campus housing.
3. Continued violations on any kind (refer to the Student Code of Conduct and Residence Life Handbook)
4. Failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress for two consecutive semesters.
5. False or misleading information on your housing application.
